Burlington, may 23

My dear Dr Thomas:

I took quite forgotten that your notice is made against an answer. But you know what I owned say. The conditions of the glorious gift are very easy. It seems to me.

Is Dr Pittman trying to conciliate Democrats with his article in the Independent //

I incline a quotation

of Williams's Vermont,
which may interest
you. I think the price is fair. I bid $3.00 for a copy and lost it.

You ought to be a happy person these days.

By the way, I did not find Miss Thrupp the day I was in Weld. I will try to get down there next week.

Yours faithfully

J. Abernethy
